

Job Title: Tour Docent

Employment Category: Part-Time position, 2 – 3 tours per week

Job Summary: Work as a Tour Docent for the Manhattan Project National Historic Park (MAPR) at the Hanford Site. Docents are paired as a team to provide history tours of the five (5) Pre-WWII Historical Sites.

Duties and responsibilities will include:

- Commit to 4.5 hours for each tour
- Work with a partner docent
- Conduct the DOE approved narrative
- Maintain the time schedule for each tour
- Wear business casual attire and substantial footwear

Required Skills and Abilities:

- Communication Skills
  - Ability to speak comfortably to an audience
  - Ability to connect with an audience
  - Ability to speak clearly through a microphone on a bus
- Flexibility
  - May need to stretch presentation talking time or significantly reduce presentation talking time due to delayed bus departure, road conditions, etc.
  - May need to adjust time spent at the five stops due to weather
- Endurance
  - Present a 4-hour tour together with a partner with some portions on the bus and some portions outdoors
- Comfortable outdoors in spring and summer weather conditions

Education and Experience: General background knowledge of WWII history, Native American history, history of Euro American settlers in the Western US, farming, and irrigation. Public speaking experience is preferred but not required.

Pay Information: Hourly position as needed. Approximately $27/hour